MetalCloak's Jeep LJ Wrangler Aluminum Extended Corner Guards

MetalCloak introduces the LJ Wrangler Aluminum Extended Corner Guards. The LJ Wrangler Aluminum Extended Corner Guards are designed to provide the most protection for the side and rear panels of your Jeep without all the weight of steel. These aluminum corner guards can stand alone or be used for the mounting point of the MetalCloak rear flares. When looking for light weight and extreme protection there is no better option than the MetalCloak LJ Aluminum Extended Corner Guards ... MetalCloak, It's Your Jeep, Only Better.
